VOLUME 24 INDEX

NO. 1, SPRING 1995 1–94
NO. 2, SUMMER 1995 95–188
NO. 3, FALL 1995 189–276
NO. 4, WINTER 1995 277–370

A

Accountability: advocates of, 123–126; of charities, 129; of nonprofit organizations, 117, 122; vs. privacy, 118–126. See also Accountability, foundation

Accountability, foundation: advocates of, 123–126; annual accessibility report and, 137–138; annual public notice and, 118, 127–128, 136–137; annual reports and, 131–136, 138; Congress and, 117–119, 123–124; Council on Foundations and, 124–125, 135, 138–139; Foundation Directory and, 130–133, 136, 138; foundation staff and, 138; IRS Form 990-PF and, 126–127, 137–139; legislated, 126–128; practices of, 118; privacy and, 118–126; public interest and, 121–123; recommendations about, 136–139; record, 126–136; requests for information and, 128–130; research on, 118; Tax Reform Act and, 118, 119, 126–127; voluntary, practices, 128–136

Adams, C. T., "Leadership in Hard Times: Are Nonprofits Well-Served?" 253–262

Addams, J., 285–291

Advice and Consent: The Development of the Policy Sciences, reviewed, 173–181

Agency for International Development (AID), 45–46

Alcoholism, nonprofit services for, 195–197

American Bible Society (ABS), 361–362

Anheier, H. K., "Theories of the Nonprofit Sector: Three Issues," 15–23

Articles: "Do the Poor Pay More? Is the U-Shaped Curve Correct?" 79–90; "The Economic Structure of the Charitable Sector in the United Kingdom," 321–335; "Factors Affecting Volunteer Long-Term Care Ombudsman Organizational Commitment and Burnout," 213–233; "Financing Philanthropic Institutions in Biblical and Talmudic Times," 307–320; "The Ironies of Human Resource Mobilization by Neighborhood Associations," 235–252; "Latent Cosmopolitan and Local Orientation Among Rural Emergency Service Volunteers," 103–116; "Leadership in Hard Times: Are Nonprofits Well-Served?" 253–262; "Managerial Roles and Entrepreneurship in Nonprofit Urban Arts Agencies in Virginia," 143–166; "Nonprofit Organizations Facing State Incitement Strategies; Policies Related to Alcohol Problems and HIV/AIDS in Switzerland," 193–212; "Novel Funding for a Novel Nonprofit Sector: Latin America's Private Research Centers," 41–58; "Philanthropy and Injustice in Mill and Addams," 218–292; "The Privilege of Privacy: Twenty-Five Years in the Public Accountability Record of Foundations," 117–141; "Reputation as Collateral: An Economic Analysis of the Role of Trustees of Nonprofits," 293–305; "Some Challenges in Nonprofit and Voluntary Action Research," 99–101; "Teenage Volunteers and Their Values," 337–357; "Volunteering and Charitable Giving: Do Religious and Associational Ties Promote Helping Behavior?" 59–78

Arts organizations, nonprofit: boards of directors of, 163; business practices and, 144–145; entrepreneurship of, 163; fiscal retrenchment and, 143–144; growth of, 144; managerial behavior in (study), 145–165; restructuring and, 164–165;

Australia, Community Aid Abroad Program in, 272–276;

B

Bachmeier, M. D., "Volunteering and Charitable Giving: Do Religious and Associational Ties Promote Helping Behavior?" 59–78

Bellant, R., The Coors Connection: How Coors Family Philanthropy Undermines Democratic Pluralism, reviewed, 167–171

Blackburn, S., Practical Visionaries: A Study of Community Aid Abroad, reviewed, 272–276
Boards of directors: nonprofit, 254, 259–260; women on, 368
Boards of trustees: active role of, 297–298; altruism of, 302–303; behavioral model of, 295–300; characteristics and effort level of, 298–300; commitment of, 302–303; consumer trust and, 294–295; passive legitimation function of, 295–297; reputation of, 301–302; warm glow effect and, 302–304; wealth of, 300–301; women on, 368
Bogard, H., review by, 269–271
Bowen, W. G., The Charitable Nonprofits: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, 183–187
Brookings at Seventy-Five, reviewed, 173–181
Burnout: age and, 218, 224; aspects of, 216–217; of human service workers, 217; psychological dynamics and, 218; role conflict/ambiguity and, 217–218, 224; of volunteers, 217–218
Bütschi, D., "Nonprofit Organizations Facing State Incitement Strategies; Policies Related to Alcohol Problems and HIV/AIDS in Switzerland," 193–212

C

Canada, third-sector organizations in, 31, 33, 35
Carnegie Corporation, 123–124, 128–129, 132, 136, 175
Carpenter, C. E., "Factors Affecting Volunteer Long–Term Care Ombudsman Organizational Commitment and Burnout," 213–233
Cattacin, S., "Nonprofit Organizations Facing State Incitement Strategies; Policies Related to Alcohol Problems and HIV/AIDS in Switzerland," 193–212
Charitable giving. See Giving
Charitable Nonprofits: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, The, reviewed, 183–187
Charitable organizations, nonprofit: accountability of, 129; analysis of, 184–187; changing nature of, 7–8; IRS definition of, 184; legislators' concern about, 7; and member-benefit organizations, 183; statistics on, 7. See also Philanthropy
Charitable organizations, United Kingdom: Central Statistical office study of, 324–333; Charities Aid Foundation studies of, 322; contract culture and, 333; expenditure patterns of, 330–332; expenditures of, 328–330; GDP contribution of, 332–333; growth of, 333; income of, 325–328; income patterns of, 326–328; Johns Hopkins study of, 324; Posnett studies of, 322–324; power of, 333
Charity, defined, 184
Chronicle of Philanthropy, The, 127–128
Churches. See Religion; Religious nonprofits
Colwell, M. A., review by, 267–269
Commission on Private Philanthropy and Public Needs (Filer Commission), 8
Commons: and common goods, 27–28; communitarian theory and, 34; theory of, 28; as third sector, 27–28
"Commons: Can This Be the Name of 'Thirdness'?," 25–29
Communication: human resource mobilization and, 238; neighborhood associations and, 238, 249
Communitarianism, 33–36
Community Aid Abroad (CAA), 272–276
Coors Connection: How Coors Family Philanthropy Undermines Democratic Pluralism, The, reviewed, 167–171
Council on Foundations, 124–125, 135, 138–139
Cowell, M. A. C., Private Foundations and Public Policy: The Political Role of Philanthropy, reviewed, 167–171
Craft, E. A., "Volunteering and Charitable Giving: Do Religious and Associational Ties Promote Helping Behavior?" 59–78
"Critics to the Right, Critics to the Left," review, 167–171
Culture of Philanthropy: Foundations and Public Policy, The, reviewed, 167–171

D

de Tocqueville, A., 5–6
deLeon, P., Advice and Consent: The Development of the Policy Sciences, reviewed, 173–181

Democracy, de Tocqueville's theory of, 5–6
"Do the Poor Pay More? Is the U-Shaped Curve Correct?" 79–90
Duffy, E. A., The Charitable Nonprofits: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, 183–187
Dynastic families: anthropological concepts and, 267; legal/financial constraints of, 267; managerial revolution and, 268

E

"Economic Structure of the Charitable Sector in the United Kingdom, The," 321–335
Emergency services. See Volunteer emergency services, rural Emergency volunteers, orientation of (study), 104–114
Entrepreneurship, in nonprofit arts organizations (study), 145–165
Environmentalism: constituencies of, 91–92; fourth wave of, 92; history of, 91
Ethics: democracy and, 287; as evolutionary, 286; individual, 286, 288–289; industrial society and, 286–287; philanthropy and, 286; social, 287

F

"Factors Affecting Volunteer Long-Term Care Ombudsman Organizational Commitment and Burnout," 213–233
Fierce Green Fire: The American Environmental Movement, A, reviewed, 91–93
Filer Commission. See Commission on Private Philanthropy and Public Needs (Filer Commission)
"Financing Philanthropic Institutions in Biblical and Talmudic Times," 307–320
Firefighters, volunteer (study), 104–114
Fischer, M., "Philanthropy and Injustice in Mill and Addams," 218–292
Fisher, J., review by, 272–276
Fisher, J. M., Women as Donors: Women as Philanthropists, reviewed, 365–370
Ford Foundation, 45–46, 52
For-profits (FPs), consumer faith and, 293–294
Foundation Center, 124–125, 130–133, 136, 138
Foundation Directory, 130–133, 136, 138
Foundation News, 139
Foundations: accountability practices of, 118; accountability record of, 126–136; annual reports of, 131–136, 138; anonymity of, 120; boards of, 122–123, 138; Congress and, 118–119, 126–127; economic power of, 121; elites of, 169–170; ethical role of, 123; freedom and, 120; historical background of, 118–119; leftist viewpoint on, 169–170; openness of, 122; philanthropic marketplace and, 120; political attack of, 120–121; political criticism of, 167–171; privacy of, 119–121; private money of, 119; as private organizations, 119; as private-public organizations, 121; public interest and, 121–123; public policy and, 168–171; radical research and, 170–171; request anxiety and, 119–120, 130–131; rightist viewpoint on, 168–169; secrecy of, 120, 125; stewardship and, 121. See also Accountability, foundation

G

Gender: factors in long-term care, 229; nonprofit sector and, 365–366; rural volunteer emergency services and, 111; of teenage volunteers, 348–354; volunteering and, 348–353
Giving: ambiguous nature of, 282; church attendance/membership and, 62–63; community organizations and, 63; household income and (study), 79–90; motives for, 339; by the poor, 80, 88–90; religious/associational ties and (study), 64–75; research on, 59; socioeconomic roles/statuses and, 338; teenage (study), 341–354; U-shaped curve and, 79, 85–87; voluntary association and, 63; women and, 368–369. See also Philanthropy
Giving for Social Change: Foundations, Public Policy, and the American Political Agenda, reviewed, 167–171
Government: conflictual cooperation with NGOs, 204–205; control of programs, 203; Mill's view of, 283; philanthropy

Government (continued)
and, 283; private interest and, 205; program seed money from, 203–204; reflexive subsidiarity and, 202–203. See also Welfare state
Grantsmanship Center, 129

H

Hall, P. D., Inventing the Nonprofit Sector and Other Essays on Philanthropy, Voluntarism, and Nonprofit Organizations, reviewed, 263–266; reviews by, 359–364; "Theories and Institutions," 5–14
Hamilton, C. H., review by, 263–266
Hammack, D., "Think Tanks and the Invention of Policy Studies," review, 173–181
Handy, F., "Reputation as Collateral: An Economic Analysis of the Role of Trustees of Nonprofits," 293–305
Havens, J. J., "Do the Poor Pay More? Is the U-Shaped Curve Correct?" 79–90
Helping: church attendance/activity and, 74–75; community needs and, 72–73; costs/benefits of, 70–72; education and, 72; identification with those in need and, 73–74; models of, 73; personal norms and, 72; religious/associational ties and (study), 64–75; religious/voluntary organizations and, 72–73; Schwartz–Howard model of, 70–73; sociodemographic effects and, 72, 75. See also Volunteering
Hems, L., "The Economic Structure of the Charitable Sector in the United Kingdom," 321–335
Herman, R. D., The Jossey-Bass Handbook of Nonprofit Leadership and Management, reviewed, 269–271
Himmelstein, J., "Critics to the Right, Critics to the Left," review, 167–171
HIV/AIDS, nonprofit services for, 197–199
Human resource mobilization: communication and, 238; definition of, 236; heuristics of, 245; incentives for, 237–238; interest group theory and, 236; by neighborhood associations (study), 238–250; research on, 235, 236

I

Idea Brokers: Think Tanks and the Rise of the New Policy Elite, The, reviewed, 173–181
Income level, and giving (study), 79–90
Inter-American Development Bank (IDB), 46
Inter-American Foundation (IAF), 45–46
Interest-group formation theory, 31–32
Internal Revenue Service, 118, 126–127, 134, 137–138, 183–184
Inventing the Nonprofit Sector and Other Essays on Philanthropy, Voluntarism, and Nonprofit Organizations, reviewed, 263–266
"Ironies of Human Resource Mobilization by Neighborhood Associations, The," 235–252
Issue networks, 33

J

Jackson, E. F., "Volunteering and Charitable Giving: Do Religious and Associational Ties Promote Helping Behavior?" 59–78
Jossey-Bass Handbook of Nonprofit Leadership and Management, The, reviewed, 269–271
Judaism: Christian foundations in, 309; philanthropy and, 308–309; poor-relief programs and, 308–319

K

Kim, P. S., "Managerial Roles and Entrepreneurship in Nonprofit Urban Arts Agencies in Virginia," 143–166

L

"Latent Cosmopolitan and Local Orientation Among Rural Emergency Service Volunteers," 103–116
Latin America, private research centers in, 41–56
Leaders: boards of directors and, 259–260; external environment and, 261; inward focus of, 260–261; new skills for, 258–259, 261; of NPOs (study), 255–262; problems of,

256–257; time/effort allocation by, 257–258, 260
Leadership: mission- vs. resource-focused, 254, 256, 260; nonprofit, practices, 269–270; organizational success and, 144; professional vs. lay, 254; social service agency (study), 255–262; styles in NPOs, 264
"Leadership in Hard Times: Are Nonprofits Well-Served?" 253–262
Lerner, R., The Culture of Philanthropy: Foundations and Public Policy, 167–171; Giving for Social Change: Foundations, Public Policy, and the American Political Agenda, reviewed, 167–171
Levy, D. C., "Novel Funding for a Novel Nonprofit Sector: Latin America's Private Research Centers," 41–58
Linkage theory, 32
Lives in Trust: The Fortunes of Dynastic Families in Late Twentieth-Century America, reviewed, 267–269
Lohmann, R. A., "Commons: Can This Be the Name of 'Thirdness'?" 25–29
Long-term care (LTC) ombudsmen: age of, 228–229; burnout and, 216–218; emotional exhaustion of, 226–227; gender of, 229; health care generalist model and, 227–228; organizational commitment of, 215–216; organizational commitment/burnout in (study), 219–231; organizational effectiveness model and, 215; personal accomplishment of, 229; program legislation, 213; psychological dynamics of, 218; role ambiguity of, 217–218, 224, 226; role orientation of, 216, 227–228; strategy orientations of, 216; value of, 213–214; volunteer, 214
Lowenberg, F. M., "Financing Philanthropic Institutions in Biblical and Talmudic Times," 307–320

M

McIlnay, D. P., "The Privilege of Privacy: Twenty-Five Years in the Public Accountability Record of Foundations," 117–141
"Managerial Roles and Entrepreneurship in Nonprofit Urban Arts Agencies in Virginia," 143–166
Managers: administrative role of, 146, 154–164; artist role of, 146, 154, 156–164; arts vs. business, 144–145; basic tasks of, 149; caretaker role of, 147, 154–164; challenges of, 164–165; entrepreneurial role of, 146, 153–164; external management tasks and, 156–158; funding responsibilities of, 145; internal management tasks of, 155–156; leadership responsibilities of, 144; of nonprofit arts organizations (study), 145–165; organizational growth/viability and, 145, 158–164; personal characteristics of, 145; program creativity of, 146, 152–154; rational business practices and, 144–145; research on, 145–146; resources and, 145–146, 152–154; role types of, 145–147
"Mapping the Nonprofit Sector: Grandiose Visions," review, 183–187
Marcus, G. E., Lives in Trust: The Fortunes of Dynastic Families in Late Twentieth-Century America, reviewed, 267–269
Marketing: by NPOs, 257, 260; women and, 369
Marketplace, religion and, 360–363
Medical rescue workers, volunteer (study), 104–114
Member-benefit organizations: charitable organizations and, 183; public-benefit nonprofit organizations vs., 100; research on, 100
Mill, J. S., 282–285
Moore, L., Selling God: American Religion in the Marketplace, reviewed, 359–364

N

Nagai, A. K., Giving for Social Change: Foundations, Public Policy, and the American Political Agenda, reviewed, 167–171
National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy, 129, 133
National Income Accounts, 7
Neighborhood associations: communication and, 238, 249; governance systems of, 237, 249; histories and, 248–249; human resource mobilization by (study), 238–250; human resource reliance of, 235; membership incentives of, 237–238, 247–249; newsletters and,

249–250; participatory/representative democracy and, 249–250; political climates of, 237, 249–250; property value and, 236–237, 247–249; of wealthy areas, 249–250
Nelson, H. W., "Factors Affecting Volunteer Long-Term Care Ombudsman Organizational Commitment and Burnout," 213–233
New York state, volunteer emergency services in (study), 104–114
Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs): categorization of, 17; as private interest governments, 205; private international funding and, 44–45; program seed money for, 203–204; public policy and, 210; reflexive subsidiarity and, 202–203, 205–208; state subsidies of, 203; Third World, 272–274, 276. See also Nonprofit organizations (NPOs)
Nonprofit centers. See Private research centers (PRCs)
Nonprofit organizations (NPOs): accountability of, 117, 122; alcohol-related services of, 195–197; board–executive consensus in, 259–260; boards of directors of, 254, 259–260; Canadian, 31, 33, 35; competitive marketplace and, 261–262; dark side of, 100; deaths of, 185, 187; in developing nations, 42; donative vs. commercial, 9–10; economic basis of, 9–10; effect of nonprofit sector on, 185–186; entrepreneurship and, 163; executive problems of, 256–257; executive time allocation in, 257–258; external environment and, 255, 261; government funding of, 42; government regulation of, 9–10; grassroots associations and, 183, 186–187; growth of, 186; HIV/AIDS-related services of, 197–199; income sources of, 42; inward focus of, 254, 260–261; leadership in, 144, 255–262 (study); leadership styles and, 264; life cycles of, 186; marketing concerns of, 257, 260; mission- vs. resource-focused, 254, 256, 260; National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities and, 185; new leadership skills in, 258–259; as open systems, 255, 261–262; privatization of, 261–262; religious vs. secular, 20; research-based, 42–43; revenue sources for, 186; supply/demand position and, 20–21; think tanks as, 173–179; trustworthiness of, 19–20; voluntarism and, 101. See also Arts organizations, nonprofit; Charitable organizations, nonprofit; Member-benefit organizations; Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs); Nonprofits (NPs); Nonprofit/voluntary action research; Paid staff nonprofit organizations (PSNPOs); Private research centers (PRCs); Religious nonprofits; Voluntary organizations; Volunteer nonprofit organizations (VNPOs)
"Nonprofit Organizations Facing State Incitement Strategies: Policies Related to Alcohol Problems and HIV/AIDS in Switzerland," 193–212
Nonprofit sector: advocacy research and, 264; altruism and, 101; as commons, 27–29; consumer trust and, 293–294; core of, 28; crossnational classification of, 18; definition of, 16–17; definition issues for, 265; early theoretical underpinnings, 8; effect on nonprofits of, 185–186; emergence of, 6–7; heterogeneity thesis and, 19; islands of meaning and, 17; leadership practices in, 269–271; mapping of, 184; negation problems of, 28; neglect of, 7–8; origins of, 264; psychic benefits of, 101; resource shifts and, 253, 262; SNA measurement of, 17; as third sector, 26–27; women in, 365–370. See also Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs); Nonprofit organizations (NPOs); Third sector
Nonprofit theory: commons theory and, 28–29; communitarian, 33–36; definitions and, 16–18; dyadic vs. triadic transactions and, 20–21; economic dimensions of nonprofits and, 9–10; economics and, 19–21; fundamental assumptions of, 9; government regulation and, 9–10; heterogeneity, 19; institutional theory and, 18–19; issues in, 15–22; language and, 26–29; market metaphor and, 11; misuse of, 10–11; nonprofits research and, 9–10; organizational fields and, 11; politics and, 8–11; religious vs. secular behavior and, 20; third-party government and, 10; third sector and, 27–29; trust vs. risk and, 19–20; vision of, development, 36–38. See also Theory

Nonprofit/voluntary action research: challenges for, 9–10; 37–38, 99–101; communitarian theory and, 33–36; dark side of nonprofits and, 100; developing nations and, 101; empirical studies and, 16; extensions of established theory and, 15–16; innovation in, 15; issue networks and, 33; member-benefit organizations and, 100; philanthropy and, 10; policy communities and, 33; prosocial behavior and, 99; voluntarism and, 101; volunteer nonprofit organizations/paid staff nonprofit organizations and, 100–101; volunteering and, 99
Nonprofits (NPs): boards of trustees of, 294–304; consumer faith and, 293–294; corruption/inefficiency in, 294; religious affiliations of, 294. See also Nonprofit organizations (NPOs)
"Novel Funding for a Novel Nonprofit Sector: Latin America's Private Research Centers," 41–58
Nursing home care. See Long-term care (LTC) ombudsmen
Nygren, T. I., The Charitable Nonprofits: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, 183–187

O

Odendahl, T., Women and Power in the Nonprofit Sector, reviewed, 365–370
Older Americans Act, 213
On Liberty (Mill), 282–283
O'Neill, M., Women and Power in the Nonprofit Sector, reviewed, 365–370
Oregon Office of the Long-Term Care Ombudsman, 214–215
Organization theory, 37
Organizational commitment: behavioral components of, 216; job satisfaction/involvement and, 216, 224, 230; organizational goals/values and, 215, 230; personal accomplishment and, 226–227, 230; program effectiveness and, 229–230; psychological components of, 216, 224; role stress and, 226; volunteer loyalty and, 216, 230
Organizational effectiveness model, 215
Oropesa, S. R., "The Ironies of Human Resource Mobilization by Neighborhood Associations," 235–252
Osborne, S. P., "The Economic Structure of the Charitable Sector in the United Kingdom," 321–335

P

Paid staff nonprofit organizations (PSNPOs), research on, 100–101
Peabody Education Fund, 131–132
Perlmutter, F. D., "Leadership in Hard Times: Are Nonprofits Well-Served?" 253–262
Peschek, J. G., Policy-Planning Organizations: Elite Agendas and America's Rightward Turn, reviewed, 173–181
Philanthropy: Addams's criticisms of, 288–291; ambiguous character of, 282; Christian influence on, 309; core of, 28; defined, 281, 285; dependency and, 283, 285; distinction of deserving and, 289; ethics and, 286; government relation to, 283; Greco-Roman influence on, 308–309; as hierarchical, 289; holistic approach to, 288; household income and (study), 79–90; indigenous, 53–54; injustice and, 281–284, 288, 290; Judaic influence on, 308–310; marketplace and, 120, 359–363; Mill's criticisms of, 283–285; moral deterioration and, 290; moral role of, 123; nonprofit funding and, 42; nonprofits research and, 8, 10, 359; political criticism of, 167–171; by the poor, 80, 88–90; private research centers and, 43–47; public accountability and, 118–119; religion and, 362–363; self-interest and, 282, 288; social justice and, 281; statistics on, 80; subjugation of women and, 284–285; tradition of anonymity and, 120; U-shaped curve and, 79, 85–87; women and, 284–285, 369. See also Charitable organizations, nonprofit; Giving; Poor-relief programs
"Philanthropy and Injustice in Mill and Addams," 218–292
Pluralism, 34–36
Policy communities, 33
Policy–Planning Organizations: Elite Agendas and America's Rightward Turn, reviewed, 173–181

Political opportunity theory, 32
Politics: and grantmaking, 170–171; new Washington, 173–174; philanthropic foundations and, 167–171; theory and, 8–11; think tanks and, 173–179
Poor, giving behavior of (study), 79–90
Poor-relief programs: ancient Judaism and, 308–310; in biblical period, 310–312; historical trends in, 308; Judaic communal, 316–318; Judaic sectarian, 315–316; resource sources for, 307; in talmudic period, 313–318. See also Philanthropy
Practical Visionaries: A Study of Community Aid Abroad, reviewed, 272–276
Pratt, C. C., "Factors Affecting Volunteer Long-Term Care Ombudsman Organizational Commitment and Burnout," 213–233
Principles of Political Economy (Mill), 283
Private Foundations and Public Policy: The Political Role of Philanthropy, reviewed, 167–171
Private research centers (PRCs): financial breakthrough of, 41–42; for-profit characteristics of, 51; foundations and, 44–45, 53–54; funding of, 42; government funding and, 48–49; government type and, 48–49; higher education funding and, 49; higher education organizations vs., 49–50; indigenous philanthropy and, 53–54; intellectual autonomy and, 44; international contact and, 53; international philanthropy and, 42–47; in Latin America, 41–56; marketed research and, 51–52; private domestic funding and, 54; public domestic funding and, 47–50; public international funding and, 45–46; self-financing and, 52–53; social science research and, 44; specialization of, 48; statist tradition and, 41–42, 55; tax exemptions and, 49; uniqueness of, 41, 55; universities and, 44; U.S. donors and, 45; work task funding and, 48. See also Research institutes, nonprofit
"Privilege of Privacy: Twenty-Five Years in the Public Accountability Record of Foundations, The," 117–141
Public accountability. See Accountability
Public good, 281
Public Information Handbook for Foundations, 139
Public policy: experts, 174–175; foundations' role in, 168–171; historical background of, 174; research institutes and, 176

R

Raskoff, S. A., "Teenage Volunteers and Their Values," 337–357
Reflexive subsidiarity, 202–206
Religion: Bible societies and, 361–362; helping behavior and, 60–64, 69–75; marketplace and, 360–363; nonprofits and, 359; organizational structure and, 359; philanthropy and, 362–363; poor-relief programs and, 308–319; secularization and, 360; study of, 359–360; teenage volunteerism and, 347, 351–353; volunteering/giving behavior and (study), 64–75. See also Judaism
Religious nonprofits: community studies and, 63; denominational studies and, 61–62; helping behavior and, 60–64, 69–75; helping decision and, 72–73; national studies and, 62–63; student studies and, 61; value rationality of, 20
"Reputation as Collateral: An Economic Analysis of the Role of Trustees of Nonprofits," 293–305
Research. See Nonprofit/voluntary action research
Research centers. See Private research centers (PRCs)
Research institutes, nonprofit: conservatism of, 176; development of, 175–176; models of, 175; national policy, 177; think tanks and, 175–176. See also Private research centers (PRCs)
Reviews: Advice and Consent: The Development of the Policy Sciences, 173–181; Brookings at Seventy-Five, 173–181; The Charitable Nonprofits: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, 183–187; The Coors Connection: How Coors Family Philanthropy Undermines Democratic Pluralism, 167–171; "Critics to the Right, Critics to the Left," 167–171; The Culture of Philanthropy: Foundations and Public Policy, 167–171; A Fierce Green Fire: The American

Environmental Movement, 91–93; Giving for Social Change: Foundations, Public Policy, and the American Political Agenda, 167–171; The Idea Brokers: Think Tanks and the Rise of the New Policy Elite, 173–181; Inventing the Nonprofit Sector and Other Essays on Philanthropy, Voluntarism, and Nonprofit Organizations, 263–266; The Jossey-Bass Handbook of Nonprofit Leadership and Management, 269–271; Lives in Trust: The Fortunes of Dynastic Families in Late Twentieth-Century America, 267–269; "Mapping the Nonprofit Sector: Grandiose Visions," 183–187; Policy-Planning Organizations: Elite Agendas and America's Rightward Turn, 173–181; Practical Visionaries: A Study of Community Aid Abroad, 272–276; Private Foundations and Public Policy: The Political Role of Philanthropy, 167–171; Selling God: American Religion in the Marketplace, 359–364; Spreading the Word: The Bible Business in Nineteenth-Century America, 359–364; "Think Tanks and the Invention of Policy Studies," 173–181; The Transformation of American Politics: The New Washington and the Rise of Think Tanks, 173–181; Women as Donors: Women as Philanthropists, 365–370; Women and Power in the Nonprofit Sector, 365–370

Ricci, D. M., The Transformation of American Politics: The New Washington and the Rise of Think Tanks, reviewed, 173–181

Rockefeller Foundation, 132, 175

Rossheim, B. N., "Managerial Roles and Entrepreneurship in Nonprofit Urban Arts Agencies in Virginia," 143–166

Rothman, S., The Culture of Philanthropy: Foundations and Public Policy, 167–171

Ruchelman, L., "Managerial Roles and Entrepreneurship in Nonprofit Urban Arts Agencies in Virginia," 143–166

Rural volunteer emergency services, orientation of (study), 104–114

Russell Sage Foundation, 124, 129, 175

S

Saidel, J., reviews by, 365–370

Schervish, P. G., "Do the Poor Pay More? Is the U-Shaped Curve Correct?" 79–90

Schwartz–Howard model of helping decision, 70–73

Scott, J. T., "Some Thoughts on Theory Development in the Voluntary and Nonprofit Sector," 31–40

Selling God: American Religion in the Marketplace, reviewed, 359–364

Shabecoff, P., A Fierce Green Fire: The American Environmental Movement, reviewed, 91–93

Smith, D. H., "Mapping the Nonprofit Sector: Grandiose Visions," 183–187; "Some Challenges in Nonprofit and Voluntary Action Research," 99–101

Smith, J. A., Brookings at Seventy-Five, reviewed, 173–181; The Idea Brokers: Think Tanks and the Rise of the New Policy Elite, reviewed, 173–181

Social justice, 281

Social science research. See Private research centers (PRCs)

Social service agencies: community leadership function of, 254; consensus mode of, 260–261; funding shifts and, 253, 262; leadership orientations in (study), 255–262; marketplace demands and, 261–262; problems of, 253–254

"Some Challenges in Nonprofit and Voluntary Action Research," 99–101

"Some Thoughts on Theory Development in the Voluntary and Nonprofit Sector," 31–40

Spreading the Word: The Bible Business in Nineteenth-Century America, reviewed, 359–364

Subsidiarity: alcohol-related services and, 195–197; case studies on, 194–199; defined, 194; HIV/AIDS-related services and, 197–199; NGOs and, 202–203, 205–206; reflexive, 202–206; in Switzerland, 200–201; welfare state and, 194–195, 200

Sundeen, R. A., "Teenage Volunteers and Their Values," 337–357

Switzerland: alcohol-related nonprofit services in (case study), 195–197; evolution of state in, 199–202; HIV/AIDS-related nonprofit services in, 197–199; as instigator/inciter state, 199–204, 208; internal state organization in, 208–209; policy legitimation process in, 209–210;

policymaking process in, 208–209; private interest governments in, 205; private organizational responses in, 205–208; program seed money in, 203–204; state control of programs in, 203; state/organizational conflictual cooperation in, 204–205; subsidiary in, 200–203; as unitary welfare state, 194–195
Symposium: "Commons: Can This Be the Name of 'Thirdness'?" 25–29; "Some Thoughts on Theory Development in the Voluntary and Nonprofit Sector," 31–40; "Theories and Institutions," 5–14; "Theories of the Nonprofit Sector: Three Issues," 15–23; "Theory of the Third Sector," 3–4

T

Tax Reform Act of 1969, 7, 118, 119, 126–127, 178
Teenage volunteers: altruistic vs. egoistic motivations of, 339–340; charitable goals of, 347, 352; civic activism of, 347, 352; civic commitment of, 340–341; community/social responsibility goals of, 343, 345, 347; expressive/utilitarian goals of, 343–345, 347–348; male vs. female, 348–354; personal achievement by, 340–341; personal goals of, 341–344; prevalence of, 337; religious values of, 347, 351–353; research on, 337, 339–340; socioeconomic roles/statuses and, 338, 341; values/attitudes of (study), 341–354; volunteer activities for, 354–355
"Teenage Volunteers and Their Values," 337–357
"Theories and Institutions," 5–14
"Theories of the Nonprofit Sector: Three Issues," 15–23
Theory: of commons, 28; critical scholarship and, 11–12; de Tocqueville's, of democracy, 5–6; institutional politics and, 8–11; interest-group formation, 31–32; language and, 26–29; liberal political, 33–34; linkage, 32; mystique of, 31; organization, 37; pluralist, 34–36; political opportunity, 32; of third sector, 27–29; usefulness of, 11; value neutrality of, 5. See also Nonprofit theory
"Theory of the Third Sector," 3–4
Think tanks, 173–179
"Think Tanks and the Invention of Policy Studies," review, 173–181
Third sector: Canadian, 31, 33, 35; as commons, 27–29; defining, 26; essential nature of, 27; interactive nature of, 32; language problem and, 26–29; theory of, 27–29. See also Nonprofit sector
Third World, NGOs in, 272–274, 276
Third-sector research. See Nonprofit research
Thompson, A. M., III, "Latent Cosmopolitan and Local Orientation Among Rural Emergency Service Volunteers," 103–116
Tober, J., review by, 91–93
Transformation of American Politics: The New Washington and the Rise of Think Tanks, The, reviewed, 173–181
Turner, S. E., The Charitable Nonprofits: An Analysis of Institutional Dynamics and Characteristics, 183–187

U

United Kingdom. See Charitable organizations, United Kingdom
United Nations System of National Accounts (SNA), 17
U-shaped curve, 79, 85–87

V

Van Til, J., "Theory of the Third Sector," 3–4
Virginia, nonprofit arts organizations in (study), 145–165
Voluntarism: character development and, 282–283; de Tocqueville's theory of, 5–6; injustice and, 281; Mill's support of, 282–283; of paid employees, 101; piecemeal approach to, 288–289; public good and, 281; sectors within, 265; tyranny and, 283. See also Voluntary organizations; Volunteering; Volunteers
Voluntary action research. See Nonprofit/voluntary action research
Voluntary organizations: fiscal retrenchment and, 143–144; giving/helping behavior and (study), 64–75; statistics on, 7; vulnerability of, 143

Volunteer emergency services, rural: control/evaluation/discipline and, 107–108; danger and, 106; firefighting/medical, 103–114; gender and, 111; localistic vs. cosmopolitan orientation in (study), 104–114; locus of emergencies and, 108–109; nature of response and, 106; origins of, 105–106; personal characteristics and, 114; solidarity in, 106; training and, 107; volunteering characteristics and, 113
Volunteer nonprofit organizations (VNPOs), research on, 100–101
Volunteering: altruistic vs. egoistic, 338–339, 351–353; community organization and, 63; complexity of, motivation, 351–352; defined, 99, 341; gender and, 348–353; helping behavior and, 60–66, 69–75; political/religious values and, 339–340; religious/associational ties and (study), 64–75; religious denomination and, 62–63; research on, 59–60, 99; socioeconomic roles/statuses and, 338; by students, 61; value structure of. See also Helping; Voluntarism; Volunteer emergency services, rural; Volunteers
"Volunteering and Charitable Giving: Do Religious and Associational Ties Promote Helping Behavior?" 59–78
Volunteers: age of, 218; burnout of, 217–218; job-context variables and motivation of, 215; job satisfaction/involvement and, 216, 224, 230; long-term care ombudsmen (study), 219–231; loyalty of, 216, 230; organizational commitment of, 215–216, 224; organizational effectiveness model of, 215; organizational vision and, 230; personal accomplishment of, 226–227, 230; role conflict/ambiguity of, 217–218; rural emergency (study), 104–114. See also Teenage volunteers; Voluntarism; Volunteer emergency services, rural; Volunteering von Schlegell, A., Women as Donors: Women as Philanthropists, reviewed, 365–370

W

Walter, K. L., "Factors Affecting Volunteer Long-Term Care Ombudsman Organizational Commitment and Burnout," 213–233
Welfare state: federal, 194; inciter state vs., 208; neoconservative criticism of, 193–194; reorganization of, 194; subsidiarity and, 194; unitary, 194–195
Women: barriers to, 367; as board members, 368; dependency of, 285; economic nonparity of, 366; funding movements by, 370; giving patterns of, 368–369; marketing and, 369–370; in nonprofit sector, 365–370; occupational representation of, 366; philanthropic behavior of, 369; philanthropy and, 284–285; power and, 367–368; racism/sexism and, 366–367; subjugation of, 284–285
Women as Donors: Women as Philanthropists, reviewed, 365–370
Women and Power in the Nonprofit Sector, reviewed, 365–370
Wood, J. R., "Volunteering and Charitable Giving: Do Religious and Associational Ties Promote Helping Behavior?" 59–78
Wosh, P. J., Spreading the Word: The Bible Business in Nineteenth-Century America, reviewed, 359–364